

REPRISALS TO BE ANSWER OF ITALIAN GOVT.

Mussolini to Fight Na- tions Which Voted for Sanctions Imposit

Rome, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Italy will direct the same sanctions reprisals against France that are directed against Britain, notwithstanding the Italo-French friendship, authoritative Fascist sources said today.

Italy does not have the same bitterness toward the French as it has toward the British, these sources continued, "but it has voted sanctions and it must take the consequences."

The presence of Baron Pompeo Aloisi at Geneva was cited to illustrate Italy's desire to preserve the basis of understanding with France. Italy consented to send Aloisi, its league spokesman, back into "the sanctification atmosphere," these sources insisted, at the request of Premier Laval of France.

At Laval's Request

Aloisi is there, they added, in compliance with the French premier's wish that he be available to listen to Franco-British peace proposals.

Mussolini deprived sanctionist countries of any possible pleasure or profit in watching the figures of Italy's foreign trade shrink by decreeing to himself powers to keep such statistics secret.

Italy also struck at the League boycott, now considered virtually inevitable, by driving forward reluctantly with his war in Ethiopia.

Following the student demonstrations against Great Britain, which caused a temporary closing of some British shops, reprisals against "sanctionist" countries were extended to newspapers and other types of publications.

Passage and sale of newspapers and periodicals from nations imposing sanctions were forbidden this morning in Turin. Hotels of that northern city were required to withdraw magazines, journals, posters and booklets of "sanctionist" countries from their reading rooms.

Ship More Troops

Persisting in its wholesale shipment of troops to East Africa, the government announced three great steamers would leave Naples tomorrow with 10,000 blackshirt troops.

General Attilio Teruzzi, commander of the February first division and present commander-in-chief of the blackshirt militia, it was announced, would accompany the troops.

The steamer Celio sailed from Naples last night with 570 blackshirts of the February first division.

On the Ethiopian fronts, the first month of the campaign of occupation closed quietly.

Road construction, submission of minor Ethiopian chieftains and arrival of new men and supplies marked the dawn of the 31st day since General Emilio De Bono's northern army launched its successful drive on Addis.

Italian news agency reports from Djibouti, French Somaliland, said bodies of Ethiopians were abandoning the zone of military operations and that others were refusing to go to the front.

Speaking from the same platform where he stood yesterday when he inaugurated the University of the City of Rome, King Victor Emanuel asserted that Italy was fostering her civilization at home, while engaged in defense of "her security and her future."

"It is not without significance that this citadel of thought is opening its rooms consecrated to noble and earnest studies while my country is engaged in an undertaking which the supreme emergency of her life, her security and her future has imposed," the king asserted.

It Duce had proclaimed on the same spot yesterday that this new center of Roman culture was being inaugurated while "our soldiers are carrying civilization forward with their courage and their sacrifice."

Without mentioning the current international complications specifically, King Victor Emanuel absolved Italy of any intention of disturbing world peace.

"Italy asks nothing more than to be permitted to enjoy the fullness of her life in order to work and to dedicate her energies on behalf of those common ideals which constitute the sacred heritage of civilized humanity," he said.

Today's official communique, on the thirteenth day of the East African campaign, said:

"A telegram from General Emilio De Bono (commander-in-chief) of the Italian forces in East Africa) is as follows:

"Chiefs and notables of regions not yet occupied by our troops continue to present themselves to our military authorities.

"Groups of armed natives in Tigre province who have submitted and voluntarily entered our service have speedily organized their forces and are maintaining order in the region of Scire and Mesaba Talor in Western Tigre.

"On the Somaliland front, the activity of patrols continues in every sector.

"Our aviation, as always, is very active."

10 Below Zero

OHIO GOVERNOR HAS NEW SCRAP

Battle With Critical Newspapers Terminated in Liquor Board

Columbus, O., Nov. 2.—(AP)—A bitter controversy between Governor Martin L. Davey of Ohio and a chain of (Scripps-Howard) newspapers over methods of operating the Ohio liquor department reached the boiling point today when an official of the state's liquor monopoly announced the National Distillers Corp., had been ordered to withdraw its stocks from all state stores.

Carl A. Babcock, technical adviser for the liquor department, said he gave the corporation the notice to withdraw on orders of James W. Miller, Ohio liquor director. Babcock declined to give the reason for the order.

Davey said he understood two other distillers—Seagram Distillers Corporation and Schenley Products Corporation—had joined with the National Corporation in withdrawing their advertising from Ohio newspapers.

Attempted Influence

James M. Doran, director of the distilled spirits institute, said at Washington attempts had been made in Ohio to influence newspaper policies and that had led to withdrawal of National Distillers Corporation products from state-monopoly liquor stores.

The distillers were told, Doran said, that unless their advertising was withdrawn from the newspaper chain their products would no longer be sold in state stores.

The distillers withdrew their advertising from all newspapers instead, Doran said.

Doran's assertion was corroborated later by the National Distillers Corp., in a statement issued at New York, claiming it had been asked to cancel its advertising in a certain group of newspapers in Ohio.

Cut All Advertising

When it declined the request, the statement said, the company was informed that its brands would be withdrawn from sale in Ohio, and it then ceased advertising in all Ohio newspapers.

The developments came six days after Davey, in a state-wide radio hook-up, broadcast an address sharply criticizing a "liquor trust" and the newspaper chain.

The governor did not identify the liquor trust.

He accused the newspaper chain of making unfair attacks on the liquor department through its editorial assertions that Ohioans had been denied the privilege of buying

ITALIANS OFFER CONCESSIONS TO AVOID SANCTION

League Votes Nov. 18 as Day for Beginning Economic Siege

Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.

Geneva, Nov. 2.—An Italian spokesman informed The Associated Press today that Italy has made definite concessions for a possible settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian war.

The concessions, he said, were contained in a statement handed to Premier Laval of France outlining Italy's conception of how the war could be settled.

Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italian spokesman at the league, is said by this informant to have told Sir Samuel Hoare, British foreign secretary, that his nation's spirit of conciliation is expressed in the statement handed to Laval.

Definite Concessions.

This statement, said the Italians, contains definite concessions on the part of Italy from its original position, although it still insists upon Italy's right for security and expansion.

This disclosure followed shortly after the general committee of the League of Nations, representing 52 countries, had formally designated Nov. 18 as the date for the beginning of a world-wide economic siege of Italy.

On that date, by vote of the committee, economic sanctions will be applied to Italy as punishment for that nation's violation of the League covenant through its attack on Ethiopia.

Tension Lessened.

The Italian spokesman said that this nation found the international tension lessened on account of the fact that all the speakers before the committee laid emphasis on hopes for peaceful conciliation.

Aloisi was said to have told Hoare that any peaceful solution of the crisis must be worked out during this period of decreased tension.

Separate proposals fixing Nov. 18 for financial sanctions as well as for a boycott against Italian goods and an embargo against shipping "key products" to Italy were voted by the big meeting without opposition.

The key products cover all goods which the assembled experts believe could be converted by Italy for use in her war against Ethiopia.

The public session of the representatives of 52 nations opened at 4:18 P. M. in a tense, crowded chamber.

Laval Appears Dejected

Premier Laval of France appeared tired and dejected as he took his seat. He smoked one cigarette after another.

Hugh R. Wilson of the United States sat among the observers in the non-member seats.

Dr. Augusto Vasconcellos of Portugal, president of the committee, announced that the body's object was "to restore just and honorable peace."

The members at once adopted a resolution inviting all governments to take steps to put financial sanctions against Italy for her war in East Africa into operation before Nov. 18.

Sir Samuel Hoare, the British foreign secretary, told his colleagues that there was "nothing mysterious or sinister" about the Franco-British conversations in recent days.

Nothing to Report

He said that up to the present time, however, there has been "nothing more than an exchange of suggestions no definite outcome, and therefore nothing to report."

Sir Samuel declared that if any of these suggestions should take a definite form later, they would immediately be brought before the League.

"No one can prophesy whether we shall succeed," he said, "but one thing I can promise—we shall constantly act within the framework of the League."

Canada led in a move, and was supported by other important countries, to put more teeth in that blockade by including coal, iron, steel, and oil in the list of key products, the export of which to Italy is to be prevented.

Sir Samuel quietly but firmly warned Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy that the anti-British campaign in Italy must cease and that the conception of Italian troops in Libya might well be further diminished.

Ethiopia Seeks Money

It was reliably reported that Ethiopia is sending an appeal to the League for financial assistance in waging its defensive war against Italy.

The sanctions committee of 18 adopted a sub-committee resolution to the effect that the enforcement of sanctions against Italy should begin first and that details such as clearing balances should be settled later.

It was agreed, however, that such balances should be regarded as "good debts" to be recovered after peace is restored and the sanctions ended.

FEAR TROUBLE IN WINNEBAGO COUNTY RELIEF

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Informed its allocation of federal relief funds for the first half of November had been cut from $104,527 to $87,250, the Winnebago county relief committee today protested this threatens "serious consequences." In telegrams to Gov. Henry Horner, Wilfred S. Reynolds, executive secretary of the state relief commission, and Harry L. Hopkins, national head of the relief organization, the committee said:

"Reduction of federal funds to Illinois results in drastic cut in allocation to Winnebago county for first half of November. After paying every item of budget to lowest possible figure, grocery orders being cut 40 per cent. Such action threatens serious local consequences. Local reaction likely to be intolerable for county committee. Only additional funds can forestall almost certain trouble."

Prison Break Foiled in McAlester, Okla. on Eve of Attempt

McAlester, Okla., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Escape of 20 prisoners from the McAlester penitentiary tubercular ward was prevented today when guards discovered a tunnel just as the convicts were preparing to push through to freedom.

Prison officials said the tunnel, third discovered here in a week, had been pushed to within a few inches of the needed length.

The prisoners, the officials said, planned to leave last night, but did not complete the tunnel in time. They were preparing to resume work when the attention of guards was directed to their activity.

The tubercular ward is housed in a small building apart from the main cell houses. It was raised 18 inches above the ground recently because of numerous escapes through tunnels starting through its floor.

Expect Former King to Gain Mastery of Greece Next Monday

Athens, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Spruce man-about-town George II will have mastery of Greece's destinies after Monday, regent George Konoyia told the populace today.

The country, which has seen kings, dictators and presidents come and go, will vote tomorrow on the question of recalling the former monarch to the Greek throne from which he was ousted in 1924.

The Royalist plebiscite, demanded for months, resulted from General Konoyia's bloodless coup of October 10 when the eight-year republic was dissolved.

"The King will be here in 15 days and will have full power," said the regent, who made his last speech before the plebiscite to a large crowd at Piraeus.

"His Majesty, in fact, will have absolute right of decision even from November 4."

KIDNAPPED, ROBBED

Salem, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Kidnaped and robbed of $18, A. C. Mercer, operator of a gasoline filling station five miles north of here, was bound and left in a field four miles south of Salem last night by three bandits. Finding himself from the bonds he reported the affair to authorities.

PIONEER OREGON JEWELER KILLED BY FALL FRIDAY

Clinton Gearhart, Aged 71, Fractured Skull at Base of Brain

Clinton W. Gearhart, aged 71, jeweler of Oregon, who had been a resident of that city for almost 50 years, passed away at the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital last evening about 5:30, his death resulting from a skull fracture, sustained when he fell while engaged in removing a screen door from the entrance to his place on business at 217 East Washington street in that city about 3:15 yesterday afternoon.

Several residents of Oregon witnessed the accident and said Mr. Gearhart had taken a small box from his jewelry store and placed it on the top one of five steps leading to the entrance. He had removed the screws in the lower hinge and stepping on the box, started to remove the top hinge, when the box slid from beneath him. He was thrown backwards, his head striking against the cement sidewalk, causing a basal fracture of the skull.

Died Two Hours Later.

He was carried to the office of Dr. Lambertus Warmolls, where his injuries were treated and then rushed to the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital in this city where death occurred about two hours later. The body was removed to the Jones funeral home, where Coroner Frank M. Banker empaneled a jury composed of Lee Redfern, Percy Busby, William Burns, H. D. Freed, W. L. Sharkey and E. L. Fulmer and conducted an inquest about 10 o'clock this morning. Miss Mary M. Luddington, Dr. Warmolls and Charles Zittle testified at the inquest, the jury returning a verdict of accidental death resulting from a basal skull fracture.

Mr. Gearhart was a pioneer resident of Oregon where he had engaged in the jewelry business for almost a half century, and was highly respected in that community. The body was to be removed to the Farrell mortuary in Oregon today to be held awaiting word from relatives residing in eastern Pennsylvania.

A fall from a barrel, his head striking the ground, caused the death of Ed. D. 65, of Sterling, yesterday.

Five Killed in Auto- Train Crashes Friday

Pinckneyville, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Four men and a woman were dead today as the result of two automobile-train crashes in southern Illinois.

An Illinois Central passenger train struck an automobile at a grade crossing here yesterday, instantly killing Allen Dunn, 40 years old, and Lester Hawkins, 38, and fatally injuring Clarence Shute, 35, and Dunn's wife, Mrs. Anna Dunn.

Mrs. Dunn, 40 years old, died today.

Near Staunton, a Big Four train hit a car yesterday and killed a man believed to be Lewis Arbuckle of Springfield, Ill.

HELENA FEELS 765th TREMOR SINCE OCT. 12th

Over Half of Houses in City Vacant Police Chief Declares

BULLETIN

Owen Sound, Ont., Nov. 2.—(AP)—A return of earth tremors to Ontario was indicated today when a quake was felt here about 9:30 A. M. today. Owen Sound residents said the quake was "quite noticeable."

Another tremor hit North Bay at 9:33 A. M. but lasted only a few seconds. The tremor was noticed by many persons on the streets and was felt in practically every home. It was not nearly so severe as the tremor that struck early Friday.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 2.—(AP)—A heavy earth movement, accompanied by a deep rumbling, shook Helena at 10:42 A. M. (Mountain time) today.

It rattled dishes and knocked loose objects down but as far as known there was no new damage or casualties.

The tremor lasted but 2 or 3 seconds.

More than half the homes in this city were reported vacant today by Chief of Police Roger Smith.

Citizens in Fear

Some, he said, were empty because of damage wrought by death dealing earthquakes. The others were left by families fleeing in fear of more shocks like those which in three weeks have caused seven deaths and damage estimated at $3,500,000.

Residents carrying bedding and pets crowded railroad platforms yesterday waiting for outbounds trains. Women and children predominated.

The weather bureau's count on earth tremors since Oct. 12 was 765.

Cold north breezes and sub-freezing temperatures continued, adding to the discomfort.

"AFTERSHOCKS" FELT

New York, Nov. 2.—(AP)—"Aftershocks" of yesterday's earthquake were felt in parts of upper New York state and in Ontario, Canada, today.

"The shocks were slight and caused little, if any, damage," commented the Rev. Joseph J. Lynch, seismographer of Fordham University.

The Rev. John P. Delaney of Canisius College, Buffalo, N. Y., said the aftershocks were caused by the earth's crust adjusting itself to the change in position caused by the earthquakes of early yesterday.

Buffalo instruments recorded the new shocks at 9:33:40 A. M., while those at Fordham were timed at 9:35:13 A. M.

The shocks bore out predictions of scientists that additional disturbances might be felt "in the next day or two."

Today's movements were noted at Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y., and at Ottawa, Kitchener, Owen Sound and North Bay, Ont.

Question Three in Hijacking of Meat Truck Last Month

Chicago, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Police today held three men for questioning about the hijacking of a meat truck Oct. 23 from Frank Adams, Sheffield, Ill., a driver for the Interstate Dispatch Company. Lieut. James Kerr said two of the men, Louis Smith, 52, and Andy Anderson, 32, confessed. Also held was Smith's brother, Clarence, 38.

Adams was held prisoner overnight after three men stopped him and seized his truck, carrying a $5,000 cargo of meat consigned to Swift & Company to Cincinnati. O. Police recovered the truck and meat in a garage. Louis Smith told police he lost his job as engineer for the Chicago & North-Western Railroad after a train he piloted collided with another in Chicago on Labor Day, 1926, killing nine persons and injuring 30.

Smith was later exonerated.

$425 Alimony Deficit Lands Man in Prison

Belleville, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Herbert Funk, 40-year-old Freeburg township farmer, has been sentenced to the St. Clair county jail until $425 delinquent alimony is paid to his divorced wife.

City Judge L. P. Harris of DuQuoin, presiding over the Circuit Court here, committed Funk to jail yesterday, saying he was to be held "from now on, until the contempt of the court is purged."

Funk told the "court he would never be able to pay the $425.

His wife, Mrs. Irma Funk divorced him in 1927 and was awarded custody of their two children and $15 a month alimony. She said he paid the alimony regularly until he remarried in 1932. Funk told Judge Harris he had paid $115 since then and that was the best he could do.

Cause of Quake

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 2.—(AP)—There's an indignant woman in Buffalo who thinks Canisius College's seismograph was the cause of yesterday's quake and she threatens suit for any damage in the next tremor.

The woman phoned Joseph V. Schneider, Canisius treasurer. "The quake shook the footboard off my bed," she said. "Canisius has a lot of nerve starting earthquakes with that machine. You'll pay for the next damage you cause."

ROOSEVELT JR. DENIES STORY

John Says He Was Not in Car Which Felled Concord Girl

Concord, Mass., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Whether the President's youngest son, John, was in an automobile which struck a hedge, hurling an unidentified girl to the ground, was a matter of dispute today.

William G. Ryan, chief of police, said that young Roosevelt, a Harvard student, was in the machine, returning from Miss Lodie Laughlin's debutante party early last Sunday morning.

"Absolutely wrong," said Roosevelt of Chief Ryan's statement.

Ryan told about the accident after he had completed an investigation of the party. The inquiry was ordered by the Selectmen, the town's governing board, because they heard it was noisy and lasted into Sunday in violation of the state Sabbath laws, some of them thought. A girl companion of young Roosevelt was thrown to the ground, when the car left the road, the chief said, and struck a hedge at the Concord Country Club.

On Running Board

The girl was riding on the running board, Ryan said.

Roosevelt said there was no accident of any kind and denied that a girl had fallen from the car.

He said he motored to the party with another student. The parking space was crowded and his friend had to park at the edge of a fairway, he added.

"I imagine," he said "that the report the car ran off the road, because of the spot where my friend left his machine."

At the same time, Roosevelt said he had not been at a party in Dunster Hall, Harvard dormitory, Saturday night, when Frank Foster, aged Harvard janitor, was beaten and critically injured while trying to break up a student disturbance during a football celebration.

"I had left long before the trouble started in the courtyard," he said. "I was at the party for only about 10 minutes."

Bennett V. Ryan of New York and Eugene H. George of Milton, Mass., students, are out on bail awaiting hearing on charge of assaulting the janitor.

47 Get Hero Medals from Carnegie Fund

Pittsburgh, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Heroism in trying to save the lives of others brought medal awards to 47 men, women and children—residents of 19 states and Canada—from the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission today.

Rescues of persons from drowning provided the basis for most of the awards. Eleven of the awards were posthumous to persons who died in their rescue attempts.

Two silver medals were awarded and 45 bronze. The silver ones went to James C. Martin, 51-year-old Joplin, Mo., laborer and Christine Stewart, 35, of Brookline, Mass.

ONE ILLINOIS AWARD

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 2.—(AP)—A posthumous Carnegie heroism award to Fernald William Posselt, 24, Chicago, was announced today by the commission. Posselt died in Lake Michigan while attempting to save the lives of Bernice L. and Dorothy M. Strand, sisters. Posselt supported the girls until lifeguards came to the rescue, but drowned before they could save him. The medal was presented to his father. Posselt was the only Illinois recipient of an award.

Inquest in Murder of Convict Delayed

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 2.—A coroner's inquest into the mysterious stabbing of William Neill, a convict in the new state prison, was postponed today until Thursday, at the request of prison officials.

Neill, serving a 30-year sentence for the slaying of Fred Sievert, Joliet, in a saloon holdup in 1931, was stabbed to death yesterday in the presence of a score of fellow prisoners all of whom professed ignorance as to details.

No trace of the fatal knife was found, officials said.

William McCabe, state's attorney, planned to question a number of prisoners and employees over the week end.

TRUSTEE DIXON ORDERED TO RE- PORT ON ESTATE

DeKalb Co. Judge Sits in Steward Estate Ac- tion Today

County Judge Harry McEwen of DeKalb, sitting in the Lee county court here this morning, handed down a decision in the action in which George C. Dixon, trustee of the estate of Kate B. Steward, deceased, was cited to appear before the court and turn over funds to the administrator of the estate, Martin D. Barnett of Rochelle. Judge McEwen ordered the trustee to file his report by Tuesday, Nov. 12, when the DeKalb county judge will return to Dixon. The presiding judge stated that if further evidence was necessary the trustee of the estate would be called as a court witness.

Judge McEwen denied the motion of the trustee's counsel to strike the citation order, issued out of the county court, and which resulted in the change of venue being taken from County Judge William L. Leech, necessitating the call of the DeKalb county jurist to Dixon to preside at the hearing. Commenting upon the citation action, Judge McEwen said:

Comments on Action

"There was no attempt by the circuit court and it did not intend to take over the administration of the estate in any degree. The personal property of the estate and the real estate, so far as necessary, was subject to payment of claims and costs of administration."

"If the personal property is not sufficient to pay claims and costs of administration, then resort could be had to the real estate. The trustee took the real estate subject to probate proceedings in the county court, also subject to legal claims and costs of administration."

"So far as the income from the real estate is concerned, pending the period of administration, that income was not subject to payment of claims unless some proceedings had been had. The income belongs to the legatees or heirs ultimately. The proceeds of the sale of real estate, whether done by proceedings to pay debts or otherwise, is subject to costs of administration and payment of claims. The proceeds of the sale of real estate are subject to costs of administration and payment of claims and should be admitted in the county court."

Costs Still in Doubt

"What the costs of administration are is a matter still in doubt, because of appeals. It is for the trustee to turn over to the administrator the proceeds of the sale of real estate and any personal property which he has in his possession, not income from real estate, there to await final determination of costs of administration which may be pending in the county court."

A number of attorneys who are interested in the disposition of the estate of the late Kate B. Steward, long time resident of the village of Steward in Alto township, were present in court this morning. The estate has been the subject of litigation in the county and circuit courts of Lee county for months.

Shirley Ann Butler Has Party

Shirley Ann Butler delightfully entertained twenty little girls, sixteen being from the fourth grade, at a Halloween party given in the basement of her home Friday night.

The ghosts and witches among the cornstalks, made the appropriate background for the girls in their colorful costumes.

Games and music were enjoyed for three hours and many prizes were awarded. A tasty Halloween lunch was served. At nine o'clock, which seemed to come much too quickly, each girl departed for her home, with happy memories and thanking Shirley Ann for the enjoyable evening.

PRE-PRIMARY G. O. P. MEETING MAY BE CALLED

Suggestion of Springfield Judge Given Some Support

Chicago, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Plans for a pre-primary Republican state "advisory" convention were to be laid today before Cook county publishers and Republican leaders by Judge Benjamin S. Deboice, Springfield.

A meeting of this nature, Judge Deboice said, would go far to "stamp out factional controversies and at the same time act as a check and balance on the primary election."

The pre-primary convention idea was first voiced by Judge Deboice, head of the Sangamon county probate court, at a meeting of the Republican state central committee in Peoria more than a month ago.

Evidently encouraged by the support given his plan at that meeting, Judge Deboice, in a letter and resolution sent to all members of the state central committee, all prospective candidates for governor, party leaders and officers of all county central committees, said:

"Endorsements made by a large representative pre-primary convention cannot help but command the respect of the rank and file of our party. The result will be a harmonious primary. We will save money which would be expended in tearing down our party organization in a hotly contested primary, and that money can best be used to advance the interests of the party as a whole in the fall campaign."

Deboice said the pre-primary convention would not nullify or destroy the primary, but would give a representative group the opportunity to meet and determine what would be best for party interests and make recommendations to be acted upon in the primary.

Warned of Pitfall
However, Deboice warned of a pitfall which might block the purposes of the convention. He declared that "if the convention resolved itself into a corrupt body and permits steam-roller tactics or other ruthless procedures, the decision of the convention would be nullified and repudiated by the voters."

Declaring "conditions are too critical in this country today, and the necessity of a Republican victory in November, 1936, is too imperative to risk the nomination of candidates by a minority of the party," Deboice suggested that the Republican state central committee call a pre-primary convention.

YOUTH OF CITY COMMENDED BY CITY OFFICERS

Orderly Hallowe'en Was Praised at Meeting of City Council

The youths of Dixon were highly commended for their regard for good citizenship on Thursday evening, Hallowe'en, at last evening's weekly meeting of the city commission when Mayor William V. Slothower took the first opportunity to express his satisfaction and appreciation to the younger citizens of Dixon and stated that he openly and publicly commended them for their actions of the past week.

Damage from Hallowe'en pranks, he estimated, would not exceed $35. "Through parents, organizations and educational influences, the boys and girls of Dixon have learned that they can apply their time to much more worth while fun than in the destruction of property. The police department decided a month ago to adopt a new system this year and not an extra police officer was on duty."

Commissioner Cal G. Tyler of the department of public health and safety supplemented the mayor's statement and added:

"Our commendation is due also to the public-spirited men and women who served on the committees at the Hallowe'en celebration. Especially it applies to Harold Boltz, field executive of Boy Scouts in Lee and Ogle county, who alone is entitled to a great deal of the credit for this undertaking. He and his committees spent a tremendous amount of time and energy in making possible this commendable event."

Students Praised.
"I wish to take this opportunity to commend the senior class of our high school as well as members of the other classes. I as a teacher and one who comes in contact with schools and students almost daily, realize that the Dixon students are equal to all others and superior to the most. The seniors as the leaders and other class members of the high school went on record disseminating the spirit of good citizenship and through their moral force aided the police department, exemplifying in public effort to prevent property damage. This student body has set a record in this respect which will be hard for future classes to live up to."

"Their action was voluntary and in the spirit of good citizenship. A group called at my home and we counseled together. I told the boys that we would have no special police on Hallowe'en and they did not take advantage of this fact, but to the contrary, aided voluntarily and through their program of good citizenship in maintaining order and preventing property damage and vandalism. In consideration of this voluntary action, if the civics project is undertaken next spring by the students of the high school, I plan to spend the entire day with them."

Commissioner Joe E. Valle of the department of streets, added the humorous touch to the praises, as he said:

"I came down town at 4:30 this morning, and one look up and down the streets convinced me that Hallowe'en in Dixon had been a success. Arriving at my place of business, I had to remove a shock of corn stalks from the entrance before I could get to the door. While commendations seem to be in order, I believe that the street cleaning department is entitled to at least a small share."

NEW DEAL PLANS POTATO CROP OF 226,600,000 BU.

AAA Officials Asking Comptroller for Big Crop Control Fund

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—AAA officials watched Comptroller General McCall's office today to see whether they will be allowed to use $3,000,000 of special funds to enforce the potato control act.

If so, it was indicated, the AAA will quickly move forward with the task of deciding the number of bushels each individual farmer may harvest and sell next year without paying a tax of 45 cents a bushel.

National and state allotments were announced yesterday by Secretary Wallace, but the individual allotments were held up pending McCall's ruling.

The national allotment was fixed at 226,600,000 bushels. The state allotments totalled 222,068,000 bushels. The difference of 4,532,000 is to be used in adjusting any inequalities which may be found in the state quotas, officials said.

All potatoes grown and marketed in excess of the quotas must pay the penalty tax. The AAA estimates a crop of between 350,000,000 and 355,000,000 bushels next year, but officials say that in the past only about 65 per cent of the crop has been marketed.

Should the AAA's forecast be borne out, officials said, virtually all the marketed potatoes would move into commercial channels without the payment of any taxes.

SAVING MEMORIES

By Joseph Fort Newton

"YOU must know," wrote Dostoevsky, in his greatest novel, "that there is nothing higher and stronger and more wholesome and good for life than some good memory, especially a memory of childhood."

No truer words have ever been written. People talk today a great deal about education, but some good memory, preserved from childhood, is perhaps the best education, or the best part of it.

If a man is fortunate enough to carry any such memories with him into life, he is safe to the end of his days; and if he has only one good memory left in his heart, even that may some time save him.

The best thing we can do for a child is to make it happy, give it happy days to look back to in memory—a haven to take refuge in when the evil days come, and life is hard, and the road ahead is dark.

If a child is careless and carefree, and does not realize what we are doing, it ought to be so. It may seem to forget, but it does not. Nothing is ever really forgotten—it lives deep down in the mind.

In after years, under stress and strain, something—a scent a melody a face in the street, some chance happening—will touch it off, bring it all back; and an old happy memory will break his heart—and mend it.

By the same fact, to make a child unhappy, to cloud its little day with cruelty, is one of the worst of sins. Jesus said so—He who is the best in us all—and He added that the man who does it ought to be thrown into the sea, with a mill-stone round his neck, and be drowned!

How lovely memories are, coming silently back from days ago, like fluted pink sea-shells, seemingly hollow, but full of echoes of distant seas that drift and sing—a low, soft murmur far away.

No wonder Faust, in an evil hour, was saved by the sweet tones of Easter bells, bringing back memories of days when life was young and pure, before the slow stain of the world had made it hard and dull.

Let, even happy memories can make us sad sometimes; but nothing—not even death—can take away from us the lovely thing we have had!

Halloween Party For Progressive Class Tuesday Eve

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Huffman delightfully entertained the Progressive class of the First Christian church with a Halloween party at their home on Pennsylvania avenue Tuesday evening.

As an appropriate setting for the occasion, the roomy Dairy building was profusely decorated with witches, black cats, cornstalks, pumpkins and gruesome figures, such as scarecrows, etc.

As the guests arrived they were blindfolded and given a very unusual reception which consisted of being walked over several old bed springs, and then given a general shaking up in a well arranged numbering forty, were initiated, prizes were awarded those attired in the best costumes. Most of the evening was spent in playing various Halloween games and stunts, including the always popular apple ducking contest. Winners of the various contests were awarded suitable prizes.

At the close of the program appetizing refreshments of pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee, were served.

All present voted the party a great success, in every respect. Those in charge of the arrangements and program were Mrs. A. L. Huffman, Mrs. Don Stauffer and Miss Ethel Seyster.

Daughter of Polo Man, Well Known in Dixon, in Air Race

Miss Cecile Hamilton, daughter of A. M. Hamilton of Polo, and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Philip Woolver of Dixon, youthful aviatrix who secured a British pilot's license when she was only 19 years of age, placed third in an air race for women held recently from Los Angeles to San Diego, Calif., and sponsored by the San Diego exposition, according to a message received by the young woman's father.

Because she ran out of gasoline as victory was within her grasp she was awarded third place. She came within 55 seconds of making a perfect score, but would probably have placed first had the gasoline held out less than a minute longer. Twelve women flyers competed in the event and they were scored on accuracy of navigation and ability to maintain a pre-determined speed.

Miss Hamilton is now enrolled for a three-month course in the Blooming School of Aeronautics, taking a course in navigation, aerial photography, engine shop work, both theory and practice, blind flying, and operation of tri-motor commercial planes.

Has Had Interesting Career. Miss Hamilton has had an interesting career since she has been engaged in aviation, although she is slightly more than twenty years of age.

She was born in Chicago, June 27, 1915, graduated from the Fiske grade school in Chicago, and from Mt. Clair high school, Mt. Clair, N. J., in 1932.

While on a trip to Colorado she became acquainted with Mrs. Rolfe French, wife of a writer and columnist for Scripps-Howard newspapers. The two, who met at Perry Mansfield camp in Colorado, became friends and Miss Hamilton was offered a position as social secretary to Mrs. French, and later accompanied her to Europe.

Miss Hamilton became interested in flying while a student in high school. Her great ambition was to fly a plane and within a few years had mastered the art of flying and received a pilot's license from the British air ministry.

As the social secretary to Mrs. French, Miss Hamilton spent the season of 1934 in England and Continental Europe while in England Miss Hamilton enrolled as a student in aviation at the Heston airport, Hounslow, England, on May 9, 1934.

Crosses English Channel. Nine days later, on May 12,

Movie Capital's Fair-Haired Girls

An important stock in Hollywood, right now, is "Blonde, Preferred." Their bright locks opened locks to a film career for charming Clarissa Sherry, top of Iowa; Mary Jane Halsey, center, of Wisconsin; and Virginia Gray, below, of Hollywood, three charmers selected for coveted roles in a new screen production.

1934, she made her first solo flight, a flight of five minutes duration. By May 31 she qualified for and received a private pilot's license from the British air ministry at London, England.

Continuing the study of flight during June, July and part of August, she had, by August 4, a total of 72 hours in the air, 55 hours of which were solo flying.

On June 3 of last year she was in the air for a period of twenty-five minutes with a passenger. She was fast learning the art of flying an airplane and on July 19 she ventured across the English channel, from Heston to Brussels, Belgium, in two hours, and on the same day returned via Lynprie, the British customs for her planes, to Heston, making the flight in two hours and 40 minutes.

Subsequently she came to America and last fall took a short course in various phases of aviation at New York university. Last February 3 she came to Polo to visit her father, arriving there over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad from Chicago where she had flown from New York over the United Airways in four hours and 50 minutes.

Enters Cleveland Races.

Following a brief stay in Polo she went to California where she has been engaged in further study in aviation.

Miss Hamilton was one of the participants in the Los Angeles-Cleveland air races which started at the Burbank airport at Burbank, Calif., on August 30. Following the Cleveland races Miss Hamilton flew her plane to Sterling airport, motoring to Polo to visit her father. She then returned to California.

ODDS ALWAYS OPPOSED MARITAL HAPPINESS

Comes now a college professor who has been looking into the state of holy wedlock, and announces that the chances are two to one against a life-long happy marriage for any given set of newlyweds.

The professor—Dr. Lewis M. Terman of Stanford University's psychology department—has studied 300 marriages. Of these, he found that 100 developed into the "happy ever after" stage, another 100 brought definite unhappiness to one or both parties, and the third hundred resulted in divorces.

So he deduces his odds and hands out the result, for the dismay and guidance of ardent young folk who may be contemplating matrimony.

It is typical of the present age, perhaps, to believe that there is something new in a set of figures like these.

Whether we did it through over-much reading of sappy novels, through too much staring at saccharine moving pictures, or simply through a process of wishful thinking, we do seem to have persuaded ourselves that a marriage ought to glide along with the utmost smoothness.

If it doesn't, we pity ourselves intensely and audibly; and if that gets us nowhere we decide that the other party to the domestic equation is an impossible person and a no-good, and we go hiking off for the nearest divorce court.

By looking on marriage through the eyes of romantic 16-year-olds, we leave ourselves utterly unable to meet the inevitable disillusionment; and so we roll up one of the most remarkable divorce records in all history, and when some professor soberly announces that the chances for a happy marriage are only one in three we are shocked and saddened.

What we need to understand is that, while these chances may be slim, they are probably as good now as they ever were or ever will be, and that no one who deserves to be called an adult ought to let such odds worry him.

We get out of marriage just about what we put into it. If we are men and women enough to accept the disillusionments, the petty annoyances, and the occasional quarrels as part of the game and rise superior to them, we can make a go out of marriage—and, in the end, discover that the effort was worth making.

The reason our divorce rate is so scandalously high is that too many people enter into marriage in the spirit of spoiled children, ready to pick up their toys and quit at the first sign of trouble.

So the chances are two to one against a happy marriage? Well, they are at least that great against a happy outcome to any other form of human endeavor. If we would simply realize that fact in advance, and guide ourselves accordingly, we would get along a great deal better.

BEAUTY ENOUGH

The United States and Canada ought to forward some kind of joint vote of thanks to the authorities of the city of Vancouver, British Columbia.

Some promoter appeared before the Vancouver city council recently with a fine stunt to advertise the city and province. He wanted to stage a great bathing beauty contest. The lovely faces and what-not of the contestants would spread the fame of Vancouver far and wide, attract immigrants, and promote general well-being, he argued.

And the Vancouver city fathers turned him down. City authorities who have the good taste and the good sense to cold-shoulder that kind of chance at free publicity are all to rare these days. More power to Vancouver, which does not need a bevy of girls in bathing suits to announce its civic attractions!

AND JAPAN GOES ON

While the eyes of the world are focused on Africa, the Japanese continue to make their customary amount of hay in China. The latest dispatch has it that a movement to detach a vast section of north China from the rule of Chiang Kai-shek is under way; if successful, an "independent" state along the lines of Manchoukuo would be set up on a basis of complete friendship and co-operation with Japan.

Mussolini strikes for a comparatively small slice of African jungle and rugged mountains and sets all Europe by the ears. The Japanese quietly carve out a tremendous empire in the Orient—and nobody seems to worry about it.

It seems obvious that the extent of Japan's takings will be limited only by Tokyo's idea of what Japan needs. The dismembering of China appears to be going forward at a rate that must make Mussolini green with envy.

IN THE ATHENS OF AMERICA

Down in Boston the daughter of Henry Cabot Lodge wrote a letter to the registrar of vehicles after the Roosevelt brothers contested with a train on a railroad track and asked, "Do the same rules apply to others as to the Roosevelts?" The registrar replied, "I am running this office and you just take care of your own business."

I don't believe that a Christian state or a decent state should be in the liquor business any more than a decent man.—Dr. Clarence True Wilson, dry leader.

I am not in favor of sacrificing the life of a single American boy to settle all the boundary lines in Europe.—Senator William E. Borah.

Congress isn't in session; why shouldn't there be a breathing spell?—Henry Ford.

The Tines eyed the pumpkin and wee Goldy shouted, "Oh, it's grand! I wonder, though, if it is strong enough to hold us all."

"We've had some thrilling rides, before. Please tell us just what is in store. We might get up all right and promptly have an awful fall."

"My goodness," the old witch replied. "You certainly don't think that I'd play tricks on happy little tots? Why, I am fond of you."

"I made the pumpkin as a treat, and with no accidents you'll meet. Just rest assured I'm being fair in anything I do."

"Your word is good enough for me. I think we're lucky as can be," said Scouty. "Kindly tell us, though, just how to steer the thing."

"I'll be the captain of the crew and do what-er you say to do, and I'll bet, when we get up, the wind will make the pumpkin swing."

"Of course it will, but that's all right, if you hang on with all your might," replied the witch. "I'll steer itself. Just take it easy, son."

"A very strange land is nearby, that you'll drop down to, from the sky. I almost wish that I was going, you will have such fun."

"Well, say, why not?" said Goldy. "You have no more work, this year, to do. When we have landed, you can ride back in your pumpkin shell."

"I'll fall asleep on such a ride. I'd best stay here," the witch replied. "As I have said before, I'm tired. I'll merely wish you well."

"Now, all get set! I'll wave my hand, and you will float right off this land." One of the Tines cried, "Okay. Please send us way up high."

The pumpkin wings flapped very fast. The pumpkin shivered. Then, at last, it slowly left the ground, as all the Tines waved goodbye.

Brethren Church Notes.

November will be observed as Loyalty month at the Church of the Brethren. The church needs to hold a higher place in our thinking efforts and planning. Many make their church secondary in their lives, while other folks give it no place at all. Jesus said: "Seek ye first the Kingdom." Are we doing that? Many are giving the church a large place in their lives. We are glad that new families and members are coming; our enrollment is increasing. The average attendance is 10 per cent better this year than last. Why not come and join with your neighbor and friends in the greatest work in the world and one which pays the largest dividends? Come next Sunday.

REDMEN ENGAGE FREEPORT PROS; HARVEY LATER

Harvey Team Brings 200-Pound Line to the Dixon Field

Opposing the Dixon Redmen Sunday on the high school field will be the Freeport Pro eleven, a team which is hoped to give the local team the best game of the season to date.

The Redmen have booked a clinch game with the Harvey Independents this season. The game will be played here. Harvey will bring one of the strongest teams in northern Illinois to Dixon, the line averaging over 200 pounds to the man. It is a heavy, fast-charging line, and bids fair to violate the Redmen's uncrossed goal line.

Alumni Players Needed; Practice Called Sunday

Coach Charlie Roundy issued a call to all alumni football players back to three years out of high school, to report for the regular Sunday practice of his eleven in preparation for the game with Dixon high school, Monday, November 11, Armistice Day.

The team has been practicing every Sunday but Roundy says he lacks reserves enough to build up a team capable of withstanding Dixon high's tremendous power. Reporting at a meeting in the Telegraph news room Tuesday were "Red" Flanagan, Lyle Snader, Sam Bellows, Earl Flanagan, Allen Poyd, Paul Potts and others interested in playing on this year's alumni team. The game will be played as a climax to an All-Alumni Day, the grads are planning on Armistice Day.

NINE TWO YEAR COLTS SET FOR PIMLICO RACES

Baltimore, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Nine two-year old thoroughbreds were set today for the mile and sixteenth dash to Pimlico race track's Pot O'Gold, the $48,000 futurity.

Cloudy skies and more than a hint of rain, coupled with the absence of about half a dozen of the foremost contenders for the juvenile championship, had little effect on the enthusiasm of the fans.

Track officials expected the attendance to top the 25,000 mark, and the betting handle to approximate a half-million dollars.

The field included plenty of well-liked youngsters, with one—Bomar stable's Grand Slam—drawing most of the backing as post-time neared. The Detroit colt, four times a winner in juvenile stakes, is a leading championship prospect.

At least five colts stacked up as possibilities against the Bomar entry. New Reich, a consistent performer at Laurel, and Holly-rood were well-backed, as was Jean Hart.

CARNERA WINS BY TECHNICAL KAYO IN BOUT

Belts Neusel Around Ring Before Crowd Of 12,768

New York, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Primo Carnera, Italian heavyweight trying for a comeback, emerged from the smoky haze of Madison Square Garden last night with a technical knockout victory over Walter Neusel, the blood German heavyweight.

Refusing to be floored under a barrage of ponderous, sweeping lefts, the spindly-shanked victim threw up his hands and quit in the fourth round after Carnera inflicted a deep cut over his eye with a massive flying elbow.

As blood spurted from the cut, Neusel's seconds jumped into the ring with a towel, but he beat them to the draw, walking away from the grinning Carnera to his corner. Before a near-capacity attendance of 12,768 which paid $31,621.53 to witness Carnera's first public appearance since Joe Louis knocked him out last summer, the former heavyweight champion belted his much smaller opponent all over the ring and easily won every round. Carnera weighed 268; Neusel 201.

ELECTIONS NEXT TUESDAY KEENLY WATCHED BY ALL

May Have Important Effect on New Deal's Fate Next Year

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Political campaigning swept toward a climax in six states today in preparation for elections Tuesday that may reverberate into the 1936 presidential contest.

Struggles to win the New York assembly, the Kentucky governorship and the Philadelphia mayorality dominated national interest. Students of politics watched these contests especially for auguries of Roosevelt's fortunes at the polls next year.

The New Deal has figured to a lesser extent in electioneering for state offices in New Jersey, and hardly at all in Virginia and Mississippi.

Because New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have 97 electoral votes, or more than a fifth of the nation's total, sentiment as between Democratic and Republican state tickets in those states could have a bearing on future party strategy. Those states dominate eastern political power; and it is in the industrial east that Roosevelt's opponents assert he has lost most ground.

New Deal Watchful. If this contention is not clearly demonstrated Tuesday, with allowance for the prominence of state and local issues in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, observers believe the New Deal may feel less concerned about what may happen next year in New England. The administration leadership might feel that either New York or Pennsylvania would counter balance any New Deal losses in New England.

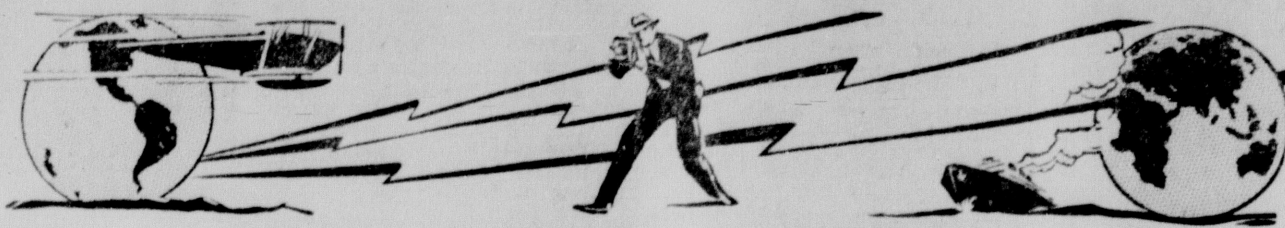

The Republican leadership has frankly been its New York campaign on a national plane while Governor Herbert Lehman emphasized state issues. The assembly is now Democratic by a margin of four votes. Whichever way it goes, the victors probably will hail the result as a forerunner of 1936.

Some Democratic forecasters have said Roosevelt's reelection would be assured if either New York or Illinois stands by him. Their assumption is that the south will stay solid and his western and mid-western strength will be sufficient to assure the result they desire.

Penna. Doubtful. As for Pennsylvania, there have been signs that despite the present unofficial registration total of over 2,636,000 Republicans to less than 1,699,000 Democrats, the state is far from given up by the New Deal. The registration gain over last fall was 297,000 for the Democrats and about 1

IN AUSTRALIA, IT WAS THE CUSTOM, FOR YEARS, TO LEAVE BROKEN BOTTLES AT THE FOOT OF TELEGRAPH POLES, TO PROVIDE THE NATIVES WITH MATERIAL FOR GLASS ARROWHEADS; OTHERWISE, THEY STOLE THE INSULATORS FROM THE POLES.

Some tribes of savages in Australia, even today, make excellent arrowheads out of broken glass bottles, using only primitive tools in chipping them to the desired shapes. A deadly weapon of razor sharpness thus is obtained.

DAILY HEALTH

LIGHT SENSITIVENESS

Black sheep have all the advantages over white ones when it comes to eating hard hay on bright sunny days. For the white sheep become ill and their woolly hair falls out, whereas the black sheep suffer not at all. This peculiar difference in reaction is charged to what is technically called photodynamic sensitization, a very interesting subject that deals with the effects of light upon the living tissues.

That certain animals, when feeding upon certain foods may become ill when exposed to sunlight is a very old observation. In Florida, for example, it is said that only black pigs are raised, as the white pigs become ill and die, owing to their inability to feed on the root of a certain indigenous plant.

Clover sickness is a disease seen in white horses and sometimes in white cattle fed on Swedish clover.

In man similar pathologic photodynamic reactions may take place, but they are comparatively rare.

The subject of photodynamic sensitization, at least in so far as it bears upon the animal kingdom, has been developed since the beginning of this century. In 1900 one scientist observed that by adding a red dye, acridine, to a suspension of living microscopic organisms, known as infusoria, the organisms could be killed by merely exposing them to light. They would, however, thrive if kept in the dark. Frogs injected with another dye, eosin, when exposed to sunlight, suffer paralysis of the hind legs and die, but remain in good health if kept in the dark.

Recently it has been suggested that it may be possible to use photodynamic sensitization in the treatment of disease. The suggested scheme is to introduce into the body's cells non-injurious light sensitizers, that is, chemical substances that will interact with light, and then to expose the body to appropriate light waves. In this manner energies could be liberated within the cells. Some therapeutic use of this character already has been made in certain skin conditions.

State-Wide Check of Autos Ordered

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Illinois highway police headquarters Friday announced the opening of a state-wide check on the windshield wipers and license condition of automobile lights, brakes, plates.

Drivers of cars which have only defective lights or burned-out bulbs will be ordered to the nearest garage for correction of the trouble, officials said. However, drivers of automobiles found without lights or with bulbs missing will be given tickets to appear in court.

Local law enforcement agencies will be asked to cooperate in the state police campaign.

Sees Tax Issue as Basis of Campaign

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Dan Sullivan, administrative auditor in the department of finance and a political watchdog for the Horner administration, said today that the 1936 campaign in Illinois would be fought out on the issue of taxation.

Sullivan said he believed anyone the Republicans selected in the primary would come out in favor of a return to a real estate levy to finance the state government.

He said he expected all Democratic candidates to endorse the sales tax, but that several would probably seek to wrest the nomination from Horner by opposing the present three per cent tax as against the former two per cent levy.
